VOL. LV .- NU. 1

NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1913

PRICE TWO CENTS

The Bulletin's Circulation In Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Largest in Connecticut in Proportion to the City's Population.

"DYNAMITE SPECIAL" IS ON ITS WAY

Train Bearing Convicted Labor Leaders and a Guard of Fifty Officers Starts For Leavenworth

DEPUTIES WARNED TO BE READY FOR TROUBLE

Does Not Expect It But Can't Take Any Chances-Will Not Handcuff Prisoners Unless It is Necessary-All Appear Depressed as They March to the Train-Appeals to be Heard Tomorrow on Writs to Prevent Imprisonment.

mite conspirators to the federal prisat Leavenworth, Kansas the scene activity in the famous case have

Thursday morning when Federal Judge Albert B. Anderson will rule on the motions of the defense for a writ of supersedeas and of error. To Consider Appeals Tomorrow.

Judge Scaman of the United States circuit court of appeals will be here Thursday and has announced that he for writs to prevent the incarceration in Leavenworth prison of the 33 men who were given sentences ranging from one year and one day to seven years in the United States district court here vesterday.

Waved Goodbye to Prisoners. The wives and relatives, after way ing the prisoners goodbye as they marched to the special train at 12.10 this afternoon, returned to their homes and rooming houses, preparatory to packing their things for the lonely homeward journey. With their loved ones out of the city many of the women said they had no desire to re-main long here, where their help-neets had been taken from them. To Take Care of Prisoners' Families.

J. E. McClory, of Cleveland, acting secretary-treasurer of the Interna-tional Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers of which 32 f the prisoners are officers or forme ficers and Ed. Lewis, San Francisco executive board member, the only two officials of the union out of custody stated this afternoon that efforts would be made to take care of the wives and families of the prisoners. McClory said official action to s pply aid would be taken at the ne convention of the order. Neith would make any reply when and where the convention would be held.

Dor s of Train Kept Locked. Unless United States Marshal Ed-ward H. Schmidt, in charge of the prisoners, changes his mind, after the train which has come to be known as the "Dynamiters Special" is on its way, no word of the nappenings in the two coaches will be known until Leavenworth is reached. Marshal Schmidt the prisoners and the officers.

PROGRESSIVES TAKE UP COAL SHORTAGE QUESTION point Commissions.

ing that progressive party state com-mittees in New England finance their state and local campaigns and pay their allotments for national campaigns "through a large number of small sub-scribers rather than a small number of large subscribers" was adopted at a conference in this city today of na-tional committeemen, state chairmen and other officers of the progressive party in New England. The resolution declares that "the progressive party has been founded primarily to regione to the many the powers and rights taken from them by a few" and as-serts the belief 'that a party found-ed for such a purpose should be deconference in this city today of na ed for such a purpose should be de-pendent on the many and not on a

Another resolution adopted urges the seticut and Rhode Island "to appoint ate with the commissions already pointed by the governors of New Hampshire and Massachusetts in bringing relief to the people of New England" with regard to the alleged shortage of coal in this section and the high prices charged for it.

U. S. TREASURY RECEIVES

A CHECK FOR $1,074,980 Post Office Department Pays for Its Postal Savings Bonds.

Washington, Dec. 31.—A check for 1,074,980 was sent to the treasurer of the United States today by Postmaster General Hitchcock in payment for pos-tal savings bonds of the last issue which have been applied for by de-positors in the postal savings banks of the country. The bonds have been is-sued twice a year since July 1, 1911, and postal savings depositors have subscribed for a total of $2,389,120 of More than four-fifths of the amoun of the last issue of bonds are in the registered form. Post office octals state that this indicates they have been pur chased for permanent investment.

DECLARED PEEPHOLES HAD BEEN ENLARGED. Sensation Sprung at Trial of Suspended Los Angeles Solicitor. Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 31.-A sens tion was sprung today in the superio court at the trial of Guy Eddie, sus pended city prosecutor, charged with an offense against Mrs. Alice Phelps, when Earl Rogers, his chief counsel, fechared that peepholes in Eddle's of-fice door had been enlarged since yeserday afternoon. terday afternoon. It was through these, officers testified, that evidence was obtained against Eddle which led to his arrest. Rogers said the holes had been enlarged to nearly twice their former sizes. He demanded as Judge Wood ordered an immediate inquiry and excused the jury.

Chinese to Celebrate New Year. San Francisco, Dec. 31.—Chinatown has made elaborate preparations to tional party, leading merchants and professional men will yield for the first time to the Christian calendar. Those who still adhere to the old order will debrate the orthodox new year

New York shortly will spend $5,000,-

Bank Burglars Get $15,500. Sydney, N. S. W ,Dec. 31.—Burgiars entered the Bank of New South Wales at Surray Hills last night and got away with $15,500, chiefly in gold

Count Romanones Resigns. Madrid, Spain, Dec. 31.—Count Ro-manones today handed the king the resignation of the cabinet. This was in fulfillment of the understanding ssination of Premier Canalejas. Two New Peerages. London, Dec. 31.—There were only two peerages among the New Year's honors granted by King George, which were announced today. These elevated to the peerage are Colonel Sir George Sydenham Clarke and Lieutenant Col-onel Sir George Kemp.

Maritime Strike Threatened. Melbourne, Australia, Dec. 31.—A general maritime strike throughout this commonwealth is believed likely because of the high court's action in nullifying recently an award made in favor of the seamen by Justice Higgins, president of the arbitration court.

To Participate in Exposition. The Hague, Netherlands, Dec. 31.— The government today introduced a bill in parliament providing for the ap-propriation of 750,000 florins (approximately $300,000 for the participation of Holland and the Dutch colonies in the Panama-Pacific international ex-position in San Francisco in 1915.

FIRST PACKAGE SENT

BY THE PARCELS POST. Postmaster General Mails Loving Cup on Stroke of New Year.

Washington, Jan. 1.—As the clocks ticked off the first second of 1913 Post-master General Hitchcock inaugurated a new era in the American postal service by depositing in the Washington postoffice the first package to be entrusted to the domestic parcels post service. The strokes of the last hour cers on the trip.

"This is no plenic party," said the marshal. "It is my duty to deliver these prisoners at Fort Leavenworth prison and I intend to do so. I do not expect trouble as the men did not expect trouble as the men did not expect trouble as the men did not get as severe sentences as some get as severe sentences as some contents they would. We can't take the same moment the parcels post service was opened for business in service was opened for business in service was opened for business in service. The strokes of the last hour postmaster general stepped to the window under the newly painted in-scription "Parcels Post Packages" and handed in the official "first cackage."

in meting out justice. I do not believe any man among you would show the yellow feather, should action be demanded.

Prisoners Not Handcuffed.

"No nippers are to be used. I want to treat these prisoners like men, as their conduct has been the best. Take the man by the coat sleeve and keep hold of his arm."

The marshal said the prisoners would not be handcuffed together unless occasion demanded.

A Guard for Each Prisoner.

Sixteen of the prisoners occupied the first conch and seventeen and their keepers were marched into the rear occasion marks the culmina tion of years of work and development and forecasts more work and develop-ment," said Postmaster General Hitchcock as he turned in his package to Assistant Postmaster Robinson and Superintendent of Registry Hunt of the Washington postoffice. The postmaster general deposited the first package under the fire of a battery of cameras and moving picture machines, and as ie turned away from the window he > companied him on his errand. Pitchfork from Birmingham. Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 31.—The first article mailed at the Birmingham postoffice tonight for despatch at midnight by parcels post was a pitchfork. It was five feet long, weighed six pounds and was addressed to Good Pine, La.

officials of the department who had

SULZER PLEDGES HIMSELF TO WOMAN SUFFRAGE CAUSE. | before death occurred.

Tells Suffragette Marchers That He

Has Always Favored It. Albany, N. Y., Dec. 31.—The object of the walk of the suffragette army from New York to Albany was accom-plished today when, after "General" Rosalie Gardiner Jones had placed the message" in the hands of Governor-lect Sulzer, he -ledged his co-operaion for the cause of equal suffrage.

The "message," the contents of which was kept secret until the governor-elect saw it, said:

"The suffrage hosts of the Empire State send greetings and renewed con-gratulations to Governor William Suler and express the earnest hope that is administration may be distinguis'a-d by the speedy passage of woman uffrage amendments It was signed by representatives of the various state equal suffrage organ-which it was sent," said Mr. Sulzer. As a matter of political justice I have dways favored equal suffrage for men and women, and have recommended in my message that the legislature pass, Memorial Association Failed to Raise my message that the legislature pass, as soon as possible, a woman suffrage amendment to the constitution of the state of New York. You ladies deserve commendation for your enthusiasm for a great cause that ought to be respected by everybe and receive the consideration it merits. I congratulate you on the successful outcome of your nilerimage and assures you that is the Washington, Dec. 31.—Workmen began today the destruction of the old you on the successful outcome of your pilgrimage and assure you that in the future, as in the past, all that I can do for your cause will be fone."

Mr. Sulzer said later that he had introduced an equal suffrage bill in the state legislature twenty years ago.

After receiving the "message" Governor-elect Sulzer was photography.

surrounded by the army, MILLIONS IN MORTGAGES ON A FEW ACRES OF LAND District Attorney Denounces Alleged

ernor-elect Sulze, was photographed,

Securities as Worthless. of dollars in mortgages upon a few-acres of land, it was asserted in the United States district court here to-day were the only security for Columbia River Orenards company bonds which were sold to the amount of $5,-000,000. For every one of our $100 bonds, the trust company has $1,200 in gilt edged securities which are reasonably worth $3,200, was the constant declaration of W. E. Delarm, A. J. Biehl and the men operating with them, according to United States District Attorney McCourt, who told the court that a more worthless aggregation of documents called "securities"

Held in $5,000

NEGLIGENCE CHARGED

ment were arrested on bench warrants charging them with manslaughter. The officials are Vice President Henry J. Horn of Boston, General Manager Benjamin R. Pollock and General Superintendent Charles N. Woodward, both of New Haven. "Gross and Gulpable Negligence,"

They are held responsible for the wreck and loss of life, according to the warrants, because through "gross and culpable negligence" they failed to keep roadbed, equipment and service in such condition as to insure the safe-

Wm. Rockefeller Evades Service

HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR WRECK BELIEVED TO BE HIDING IN HIS MANSION.

Every Avenue of Egress from House Covered by Representative of Government-Sought as Trust Witness.

New York, Dec. 31.—"We will get Mr. Rockefeller if it takes all winter." This was the defiant challenge issued tonight by Jerry South, chief clerk to the feet of the house of representatives, in command of the government force of process servers and hired detectives that is trying to serve William Rockefeller with a subpoena to appear on January 6 before the Pujo commiton January 6 before the Pujo commit-tee that is investigating the "money

Believed to Be Hiding in House.

Condensed Telegrams

Rear Admiral P. H. Cooper, U. S. N., retired, died in his home in Morristown, N. J., of consumption. He was 66 years old.

One Form for the New Parcels Post, that of the return receipt for insured packages, has not yet been delivered to postmasters

The Anchor Liner Cameronia brought in enough Scotch whiskey from Glassow to make 2,160,000 highballs for New Year's eve.

Mrs. E. Keeler Spencer, a nurse, who is known to civil war veterans as the Florence Nightingale of the civil war, died in Oswego, N. Y., aged 94. James P. Hamilton, president of Worcester National bank, was found dead in bed yesterday, a victim of heart disease. He was 68 years old.

Two Laborers Were Killed by a New Haven train near New Rochelle. One man's foot caught in the rail and the other was attempting to extricate him, when the train bore down upon them.

Silverware of a Value placed at many thousands of dollars has been stolen from the summer residence of F. W. Broggerhof, in the Noroton dis-

President-elect Wilson is being urg-ed to appoint W. C. Osborne, former legal advisor to Governor Dix, to stuceed the late Whitelaw Reid as ambas

James G. Dearden, lord of the manor of Rochdale, England, left a notice in his will asking that his body be cre-mated and his ashes buried near his

Gov. Baldwin Yesterday approved the requisition of the adjutant gen-eral on the comptroller for $6,000 for the state armory at Danbury $8,000 for that at Willimantic.

The Congregation of All Souls Unitarian church, of Washington, of which President Taft is a member, has decided to begin at once the erection of new building to cost $300,000. The Navy Department's great new wireless tower near Arlington, Va., has succeeded in catching the time signal from the Eliffiel tower in Paris, a dis-tance of approximately 3900 miles. The British Secretary of State for home affairs has ruled that a condemned murderer cannot marry the woman of whose unborn child he is he father in order to legitimatize the Naval Officers at Washington are satisfied with the trustworth the American sallor; Admiral Knight reported that 800 men who were given

Convinced That the Supply of coal is inadequate and that oil will be the fuel of the future, the Russian gov-ernment is making elaborate proposals to make ready that country for the changing conditions. Supreme Court Justice Bijur of New yesterday signed an interloc-decree of absolute divorce in favor of Mrs. Nellie H. Chase from Hal night.

Chase, first baseman of the New York A pi

American league baseball club. Natives of Netcong, N. J., sat up when Andrew A. King drove an auto sleigh through the town. The sleigh had the runners in front while the back wheels supplied the power. King's average speed was 20 miles an hour.

A Wiscensin Soldier's Widow in a letter to Commissioner of Pensions Davenport expresses the wish that his bureau had combined with it a matri-monial agency through which she might recruit another soldier husband. It is Believed That a precedent is established in municipal affairs of the country by the appointment of a woman as city comptroller at Atlantic City. Miss Bessie Townsend, 24 years old, received the appointment at a salary of $1.500 salary of $1,500. Wallace Wilmot, Alias Davis, arrested at Birmingham, Ala., on a charge of forgery, was married only six weeks ago in Boston, according to the story of his young wife, who declares she knew nothing of her husband's alleged misconduct.

Joseph Moran of Stratford, was arrested at Bridgeport yesterday by Dep-uty Sheriff John M. Donnelly on a bench warrant charging him with big-amy. It is alleged that he had a wife living when he married Susan Hine in Stratford on Feb. 7, 1910.

It Developed Yesterday that three lives were lost in a fire which des-troyed a dozen Newport buildings Sun-day morning. The body of the third victim, William Russo, a barber, who was a lodger in one of the burned houses, was found in the ruins.

Governor-elect Sulzer Last Night an nounced the appointment of Valentine Taylor of New York city, a deputy in the office of Attorney General Carmo-

The Marked Prosperity of the counry is reflected in the receipts of the Inited States patent office from fees for applications. Total receipts of the office for the fiscal year ending June 30 were $2,094,059, compared with $1,987,-778 for the previous fiscal year.

The Secretary of State has decided that owing to the non-arrival of all automobile markers for 1913, owners who have made application accom-panied by proper fee from January 1st will be allowed ten days before being ompelled to carry the new blue and white markers.

A Strike of Union Waiters is threatned at the Arabian Nights ball at Thicago on Jan. 10, should the management carry out a plan to have the music furnished by the bands from the Fort Sheridan military reservathe North Chicago naval CHICAGO MAY LOSE RAILROAD ACCOUNTS Result of Taking Over of a St. Paul Bank by James J. Hill.

Paul, Minn., Dec. 31.—Reports

ACCUSED OF MURDERING DR. KNABE

Dr. William B. Craig, President of a Veterinary College, Released Under Bond of $15,000

THE WOMAN HAD INSISTED THAT HE MARRY HER

Undertaker Indicted as Accessory After the Fact-Victim's Body Found in Her Own Apartments a Year Ago Last October-Police Abandoned Case as One of Suicide, But Investigations of Detectives Result in Indictments, stolen from the summer residence of F. W. Broggerhof, in the Noroton district.

The International Harvester company of Russia, a Maine corporation, filed notice at Augusta that it would increase its capital stock from $8,000,000 to $40,000,000.

President-elect Wilson is being urgfact, being charged with having made away with evidence after the murder was committed.

Wanted Craig to Marry Her. If was learned in the evidence submitted to the grand jury that Dr. Knabe had insisted upon Dr. Craig marrying her just a night or two before she was found dead. The two had been friends for many years and of the detective in his report to the grand jury goes into details of the life had been friends for many years and of the decor and especially that part were often together, but seldom seen after she became acquainted with Dr.

was shown that Dr. Knabe enjoyed Police Called It Suicide.

examined many witnesses at his inquest, returned a verdict that the woman was murdered by persons unknown. The women of Indianapolis led by Dr. Amella Keller, an associate of Dr. Knabe, raised a fund of $2.500 as a reward for the conviction of Dr. Knabe's murderer.

Knabe's murderer.

Knabe arrived at the Craig home while the family were at supper and was asked to eat. She declined, saying she was not hungry.

Quarrel Over Preposed Marriage.

After the meal Dr. Knabe and Dr.

Ragsdale's Indictment a Surprise. Dr. Craig has iong been mentioned in connection with the case and during the meeting of the grand jury last april was questioned several hours. At that time it was regard at indiction ment would be returned against him to take and I can continue to practice. The craig made a statement delay. shore leave at Gibraltar returned to and Dr. Craig made a statement denying any connection with the crime.

Ragsdale's indictment was a surprise. His name was not connected with the case until recently, when he was ordered by the grand jury to produce a sill kimona, which it was was ordered by the grand jury to produce a silk kimons, which it was known Dr. Knabe should be accustomed to wear when answering professional calls at her door late at > garment and it is declared chemical Dr. Craig's daughter, talked a long anaylsis showed it to have been time Mrs. Tennant is said to have told stained by human blood and that it bad been washed in a strong chemical at home. solution. Ragsdale, who was adminis trator of Dr. Knabe's estate, explained that the kimono was found in her flat and left in his shop along with several other things of Dr. Knabe's ef-this city.

GERMAN BARON TO BE SENT BACK TO GERMANY Worked as Railroad Section Hand and

Is Insane. Grand Forks, N. D., Dec. 31.—Authority from the government to send back to Germany Max Von Falken-

CONTINUED PROGRESS FOR PUTNAM. -- MAYOR MACDONALD.

Continued progress for Putnar which has enjoyed a substantia measure of prosperity during 1912 May all of the citizens of the city work together for further benefit to our thriving city during the year 1913; may our people and or business enterprises enjoy the beof good fortune; may we see action for the revision at the coming ses-sion of the legislature of the city charter, which, by reason of many amendments, has become unne sarily cumbersome; may we see the way opening for the consolidation of town and city governments for the general good of all; may all be with a particularly Happy New Year.

ARCHIBALD MACDONALD.

stein, a German baron who for 11 stein, a German baron with toll a years has worked as a section hand for a railroad at Emorado, Grand Forks county, has been asked by county officials who today declared Von Falkenstein insane.

HIGHER WAGES AND LESS COSTLY LIVING. -MAYOR DUNN

and to the People of Eastern Cor-necticut: Willimantic extends greet ings and wishes you all a prosper ous and happy New Year. May the prosperity that has been enjoye or the past year continue, and ma appiness be enjoyed by all. A he circulation of The Bulletin co tinue to increase and reach ev household and advocate and bo all measures that may help to bu up a greater and more flourishing astern Connecticut. May all enjo ncreased prosperity, may the cos of the necessaries of life decrease better wages be the rule, that the poor and rich alike may enjoy tha appiness that God intended they should enjoy.

DANIEL P. DUNN.

Cotton Firm Bankrupt. ties of $762,000.

Indianapolis, Dec. 31.—Dr. William | fects which were of little or no value.

B. Craig, president of a veterinary | The detectives' report declared that the sworn statements of Augusta | Knabe, the doctor's sister, Miss Kaththe sworn statements of Augusta Knabe the doctor's sister, Miss Kath-arine McPherson, the office girl and Coroner Durham showed that the ki-mono was not in the room when the body was found.

Crime Committed Over Year Age Dr. Knabe's body was found about eight o'clock on the morning of Octo-ber 23, 1911, by Miss McPherson when she came to work.

The police were not notified for more than an hour by the girl, who malled the doctor's sisters and other associates to the flat. Dr. Knabe fived alone in an apartment house. When found alone was stretched across he had and together in public places. Dr. Craig Craig, years ago in the state labora-often took her riding in his antomo-bile, according to the testimony, and pathologist. Persistent Caller at Craig's Home.

That Dr. Knabe was a persistent visitor at the home of Dr. Craig for The indictments followed an investigation of the mysterious case made by a private detective agency, which was retained by a number of women of the city and which made a report to the grand jury. The police after a lengthy investigation at the time of the murder reported that Dr. Knabe case. Coroner Durnham, however, who examined many witnesses at his investigation at the time of the murder reported that the time of the murder reported that Dr. Knabe case. Coroner Durnham, however, who examined many witnesses at his investigation at the time of Dr. Knabe, which were obtained by the detective interviewing Mrs. Tennant. The detective did not wish to make himself known to Mrs. Tennant. The report states that Dr. Knabe arrived at the Craig home while

After the meal Dr. Knabe and Dr. Craig talked in another room and a quarrel arose in which their proposed marriage was discussed. Mrs. Tennant

Dr. Craig a Widower On the night of her death, it is also stated in the report, 12r. Knahe weni to the Craig home to return a book

PRESIDENT TAFT BACK AT HIS DESK.

Receives Visitors and Spends Afterneon in Golf Game.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Mach pleased ver his visit to the Panama canal and he conditions he found existing there. resident Taft returned to the White House today and immediately orunged into the mass of business and correspondence which had accumulated during his absence and needed his per-sonal attention. The president was accompanied to Washington by Mrs. Taft and Col. and Mrs. George W. for several hours after reaching the executive offices the president epent in going over business matters. He received few vicitors during the day and late in the afternoon he found time to play golf.

Precident Tatt was absent from Washington twelve days, three which were spent in a careful examination of the progress being made in the construction of the Panama canal

NEW SUBMARINES TO BE BUILT AT BRIDGEPORT Connecticut Gets Three and Massa-Chusette Five Contracts.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Contracts for eight new submarines were awarded, at the navy department today, the work being divided between the Lake Torpedo company of Bridgeport, Conn. and the Electric Boat company of Quincy, Mass., the former to build three and the latter five boats. One boat of the F7 type, 565 tons, is to be constructed at Bridgeport within 24 months, and two boats of similar type are to be built by the Lake company in the Craic Shaphulding wards. type are to be built by the Lake com-pany in the Craig Shiphuilding yards, Long Beach, Callt. The contract for the first boat involves an expenditure of $535,000 and for the two built on the Pacific coast $550,000 each. The contracts to the Electric Boat com-pany are for one submarine of 716 tons type 39E, to be delivered with-in two years at a cost of $615,000; and four vessels of type 37G, to cost $554. ope each and to be delivered within periods of from 22 to 35 months. At the present time eight submarines are under construction on the Pacific coast and seven on the Atlantic coast RHODE ISLAND OFFICIALS LOSE THEIR PASSES TODAY

New Law Prohibits Them Riding Free

on Railroads.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 31.—Members of the Rhode Island general assembly, and other state officials, rode free on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad for the last time, as office holders, today. Tomorrow a new law prohibiting the issuing of passes to state employees and others.

New Orleans, Dec. 31.—Announcement of the failure of the spot cotton firm of Drouil & company was made to state employes and others receiving on the exchange today. The firm, one of the oldest in the local trade, filed a petition of voluntary bankruptcy, placing and set $855,000, with liabiliary of $752,000. a mile traveling expenses by the state.

Cabled Paragraphs

Indianapolis, Dec. 31.—With the departure this afternoon of the special train bearing the 33 convicted dynatrain bearing the 34 convicted dynatrain bearing the 34 convicted dynatrain bearing the 34 convicted dynatrain bearing the 35 convicted dynatrain bearing Prisoners Appeared Depressed.

When the prisoners at 12 o'clock were marched from the county juli to the train which was waiting on a siding nearby the smiles had faded from practically all their faces. Even "Big Ed" Smythe of Peoria, called the "wag of the bunch" who always had a smile for any friendly greeting, barely noticed his friends on the short march. Many women including wives of the convicted iron workers, tried to cheer the men as they walked will consider the matter of an appeal tried to cheer the men as they walked to the train, but few of the men had the courage to return the greeting.

Marshal Instructs His Deputies. Just before the start for the train was made, Marshal Schmidt called his fifty deputies together and outlined to them the "code of rules" which would govern the conduct of the offiget as severe sentences as some thought they would. We can't take any chances, however. No man must do a thing that will reflect on this movement, that will detract from the grandeur the government has shown in meting out justice. I do not believe any man among you would show the vellow feather should action be was addressed to E. M. Morgan, post-first coach and seventeen and their keepers were marched into the rear coach. The prisoners, two in a seat, rode backwards and directly opposite them rode the two guards for each two prisoners. In the baggage car, which made the third coach in the train, was stowed the majorial for the train, was stowed the material for the lunches for

Urge New England Governors to Ap- The Public Ledger to Become Independent of New York Times. be published in the Public Ledger morrow. Adolph Ochs announces the sale of his interest in the publication to C. H. K. Curtis and John Gribbel. George W. Ochs is to continue as ed-itor and publisher, and Milton B. Ochs

PHILADELPHIA NEWSPAPER

CHANGE IN OWNERSHIP OF

continues as business manager. PUSHING AND BOOSTING

-MAYOR MURPHY. The past year of 1912 has been a ear of prosperity; it has been par-cularly so in our own city. Every dustry within our borders has em-loyed its full complement of hands, nd business, so far as I am able o judge, has been most satisfactory

ALL TOGETHER.

o everyone.

In my opinion, the year 1913 will be one of even greater prosperity. There are many things that can be done to the benefit of our city, If There are many things that can be done to the benefit of our city, If we continue to do during the coming year as we have in the past, by all working together, pushing and beauting and be and boosting, each and every of working hard and doing his best.

It is my sincere wish that every citizen will enjoy a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

TIMOTHY C. MURPHY. Mayor of Norwich.

RAZING THE HOME OF FRANCIS SCOTT KEY.

Money to Preserve It.

TOWARDS A BETTER. GREATER CITY.

-MAYOR MAHAN. Pleased with this far-reaching pportunity, I give hearty and sin-ere best wishes to all and a happy, rosperous New Year. For the past ew years New London has shown unmistaliable signs of activity and progress towards a better and greater New London, well grounded on stable foundations. The several departments of municipal govern-ment were never better managed, and the people who pay the tax realize that every dollar received is well invested and the people get full return.

With continued, united and per sistent effort in 1913 on the part of the whole people for the general advancement of the best interests of the city, there is every reason to believe that New London will continue to grow and prosper, and in the fullest meaning of the term.

home of Francis Scott Key, author of The Star Spangled Banner, where Key ilved from 1808 to 1828. The Francis Scott Key Memorial association failed in its efforts to raise enough money to preserve the structure. The building is about 125 years old and stands near the Aqueduct bridge, in Georgetown, District of Columbis

Railroad Men

AT WESTPORT.

Vice President Van Horn, Manager

Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 31.-Criminal proceedings against officials of the New York, New Haven and Hartford rallroad for loss of life in the wreck of the Springfield express at Westport last October, were begun by the Fair-field county authorities today, when three officers of the operating depart-trust."

GUARDED BY OFFICERS

"We have both his New York house and his Tarrytown home surrounded; he can't escape us," said the chief clerk, "We can wait as long as he

THE NEW YEAR

Out of the dreams of long ago Wake the hopes and fears of today; And into the Future, soft and low, Crooneth the dirge of today.

The hand of God and the hand of man Differ in untold ways, As differ the unborn days to come From the graves of our yesterdays.

We hope and dream in joy and fear; But the Master's hand is skilled To build within our shadow-dreams The Humanity He has willed.

Beyond the temporal, shifting clouds That rain uncertainty, He firmly builds the azure arch Of His Love's infinity.

For below and above the work we do.

And the work we leave undone,

Lives the unchanged Purpose, Divine and true, Of the Everlasting One.

ADOLPH ROEDER, in Newark Evening News.

Bonds Fixed at $5,000. The three railroad officials arrived his afternoon from Boston having een notified last night to be on hand oday. They went directly to the today. They went directly to the county courthouse, accompanied by counsel, and were taken to the office of the clerk of the superior court, where service was made by High Sheriff Vollmer of the county. The bonds were fixed at $5,000 each. They were furnished by Nathaniel W. Bishop of Bridgeport, who accompanied them to the court house for that purpose. today.

No Date Set for Hearing. he men were not called upon to plead.

After the legal formalities had been complied with the accused smilingly shook hands with the court clerk, the sheriff and other attaches and left the building and city. They refused to discuss the case in any way, and their insel was equally reticent. $1,000 Fine and Ten Years' Imprisonment. The penalty for manslaughter is a fine of $1,000 and not more than ten years' imprisonment.

DISSENSIONS ARISE

AMONG THE ALLIES. Bulgaria Being Accused of Responsi bility for Present Conditions. London, Dec. 31.—The passing of the year has occurred without either the conclusion of peace in the near east or notable progress in the nego-tlations which are proceeding in St. James palace. Whatever has been James palace. Whatever has been accomplished towards settling the status of European Turkey the work has been done outside the council chamber and largely by the great powers.

The most important feature of the situation is the question as to whether the allies will be able to remain effect-ively united, as dissensions, though officially denied, are constantly creep-ing in. Bulgaria, being the strongest among the states, aroused the great-est jealousy and is accused of being responsible for present conditions. The allied armies might have reached Constantinople many weeks ago, say the critics, if Bulgaria had not detach-

Steamship Arrivals. Emden, Dec. 30.—Arrived: Steamer Birma, New York for Libau. Antwerp, Dec. 29.—Arrived: Steamer Finland, New York.
Liverpool, Dec. 30.—Arrived: Steamers Lusitania, New York; Dec. 31st, Devonian, Boston, Refrigerator boats are to be operated between St. Louis and New Orleans by a new $2,500,000 company

ty of passengers. The specific allegation is that they "did kill and slay" one "Jane Doe." She was burned to death, having been pinned in the blazing wreckage by a heavy beam in such a manner that she could not be rescued before death occurred. every means of egress from the house, including a coal chute, was guaried. The watchers will remain on duty all night is necessary and tomorrow morning will be relieved by another equad Cannot Legally Enter House.

Sergeant-at-Arms Riddell declared that only lack of authority forbade him from entering the house by force. He explained that he was powerless un-der the law to service the suppoena as long as Mr. Rockefeller chose to "keep himself locked up."

Belief that Mr. Rockefeller was in his New York house was strengthened No Date Set for Hearing.

No date was set for the hearing and he men were not called upon to plead.

After the legal formalities had been physician, enter and leave the house. Although they declared that they had traced Dr. Chappelle back to his own home, the physician denied later in the day that he had been at the Rocke Suffers from Throat Trouble. "I cannot tell you where Mr. Rockefeller is," he said, "but if I was in his condition I would not go to Washington unless I was dragged there by force. He is suffering seriously from throat trouble and a nurse is in constant attendance. He has spasm's ofcoughing similar to whooping cough and it is an effort for him to speak.

To subject him to the strain of testifying would seriously aggravate the tifying would seriously aggravate the Private Detectives Guard Interior. Private detectives from a rival agency were on guard within the man-sion. Mr. Riddell was informed by the detectives employed by the govern-ment. Tonight windows on the third floor of the house where Mr. Rocke-feller's living rooms are supposed to be, were brilliantly lighted. Outside, while merry New Year's throngs passed by, the watchers kept cold and cherrless viril. To all rings at the cheerless vigil. To all rings at the doorbell a maid responded, "Please go away. Mr. Kockefeller is not at home. I don't know where he is."

CASTRO DECLINES TO STAY IN UNITED STATES. Indignant at Treatment He Received

Upon His Arrival,

New York, Dec. 31.—General Cipri-ano Castro, one time "terror of Vene-zuela," and defier of the civilized world, declines to stay in the United and Castro, one time "terror of Veneand 35,000 men of her army and sent them to Salonfid to prevent undisputed Greek occupation of that town.
Those 35,000 men, strengthened by fresh Gseek and Servian troops, they argue, would have been enough to continue the march to the Turkish cap-when the fouraine was steaming up the bay with the former president of the South American republic an in-tended visitor to these shores, Castro was taken off by immigration officials and carried to Ellis Island, that it might be decided whether or not he was an undesirable. was an undesirable. Angered at the treatment accorded him, General Castro expressed a desire to return at once.

business in Mexico that railroad accounts involving many millions of dollars which heretofore, have been carried in Chicago and New York banks will be transferred to St. Paul were current in local financial Arizona is receiving many new investments from persons driven out of weeks ago.